

Liberty Dinner Conversation Starters

Thank you for hosting a Liberty Dinner. Your role in preserving medical liberty is essential. We hope you find these conversation starters helpful.

1. Why is Hoosiers for Medical Liberty Important to you?
 - a. Discuss the ways you have participated in calls to actions, meetings, trainings, or anything else.
2. Share the Public Health 911 call to action.
 - a. The Governor's Public Health Commission released over 32 recommendations for public health centralization, the threat to liberty is immense. You can use the "Action Sheet" or "Info Sheet" found at h4ml.org/ph911downloads
 - b. Discuss the $50.6 million grant given to the Indiana Department of Health. Discuss how this money may influence the decision of the state. What kind of "financial strings" were witnessed with COVID? Are you comfortable with contact tracing? What about Vaccine Registries?
3. Talk about how mandates impacted you and your friends.
 - a. Did anyone lose their job?
 - b. Was anyone required to take a vaccine they didn't want?
 - c. Have you followed the issues with insurance industry and the 40% increase in deaths among working age?
 - d. What are the economic impacts for the future? Are supply chain issues going to be a continued issue?
4. Do you know what VAERS is?
 - a. Visit VAERSproject.com, an initiative of H4ML to educate healthcare personnel about VAERS and what to report.
 - b. Who can report to VAERS?
 - c. What should be reported?
5. Do you know how our state government works?
 - a. What is the most difficult thing about understanding government?
 - b. Does it have to be corrupt? Could we create the necessary change by being involved?
 - c. What kind of changes have you seen in the level of involvement in your community?
 - d. What would empower you to get more involved in government?
6. H4ML offers regular updates and action alerts. The organization is imperative to our medical liberty.
 - a. Can we commit to donating? Could it be a one time or a monthly donation? H4ML is asking for all members to donate $10/month
 - b. Can you host a Liberty Dinner, just like this evening?
 - c. Could you volunteer in another way? h4ml.org/volunteer

Don't forget, visit h4ml.org/libertydinners and let us know how your evening went and any main takeaways.

